Principles of the nominated Member Organization should reflect, but are not limited to, the following:

- a) Prioritize Fun
- b) Emphasize Physical, Mental, and Emotional Safety
- c) Provide Developmentally-Appropriate, High Quality Programs
- d) Maximize Attraction, Holistic Personal Development, Progression, and Long-Term Engagement
- e) Focus on Participant-Centred Decision Making
- f) Foster Accessible, Inclusive, and Welcome Environments
- g) Act as a Good Corporate and Community Citizen

Volunteer of the Year

The Saskatchewan Soccer Association (SSA) Volunteer of the Year Award is awarded to an individual in recognition of an outstanding contribution and/or achievement that he or she has made during the past calendar year.

The contribution or achievement will have been exemplified in one or more of the following ways:

- a) strong community involvement
- b) was consistently a person on whom others could count
- c) provided exceptional or extraordinary volunteer service
- d) inspired others to volunteer

The Volunteer of the Year Award may be presented to an individual who in the same year has also been presented with a recognition award in one of the player, coach, official or volunteer categories.

Volunteer recognition is a vital part of the ongoing programs and activities of the SSA. The soccer community is asked to take the time to think of individuals who have made outstanding contributions to soccer in Saskatchewan so that they can be recognized by the SSA and its membership.

David Newsham Award

David Newsham was an athlete and builder and was instrumental in the development of soccer in Saskatchewan. As an athlete, he participated from 1948 through 1983. His dedication and commitment continued past playing with his contributions in coaching and administrative capacities from the club to the Canadian Soccer Association levels.

The David Newsham Award is awarded to an individual who has made an outstanding volunteer contribution as a coach, official, manager, administrator, or board volunteer that has positively affected the development of soccer on a provincial scale or over the course of their career in Saskatchewan.

The David Newsham Award may be presented to an individual who in the same year has also been presented with a recognition award in one of the player, coach, official or volunteer categories. For a list of previous winners, visit the SSA Recognition Awards page.
